It's a new year and all of us at the Center wish you and yours a happy and healthy 2012.

Start the year off by setting goals that you can achieve this year. Include the Center in your goals to become healthy and more fit. Take a class and learn something new that is fun and fulfilling. Enjoy the rich sounds of music in the air at a summer concert or musical program - nothing calms the soul better than music. Laugh until your sides hurt at a theater or comedy production. The beat will keep you upbeat at one of our dance recitals as our dance teachers transform our students into awesome dancers.

Please join us this year...we are here for you! Our doors are always open.

We start the year off with a few changes. The Center will say good bye to Jennifer Simpson in January. Jennifer is pursuing a masters degree in counseling and her new schedule makes it necessary for her to move on. I personally can't thank her enough for everything she has done for the Center and me personally. Jennifer has been a tremendous asset to the Center. Her technical knowledge, writing skills and devotion to the mission of this Center will be missed beyond words. Jen, we wish you much success in your future.

Love & hugs!

BUT...please welcome Amanda Latva as she begins her new job at the Center as Assistant to the Director. Amanda has big shoes to fill but I am confident she will step right in. Amanda is not a stranger to the Center. She has performed in many of our theater productions over the last few years. Now she will be not only be on the stage but also behind the scenes. Stop in and welcome her.

The Center also wishes to welcome two new board members in January. Tammy Hagstrom and Mary Zappitelli will join the board. We all look forward to working with you as together we move the Art Center forward in the community.

Finally, it is with much gratitude and a special thank you that we say good bye to Barbara Simpson as she leaves the board after 15 years. You will be missed! Thank you so much.
